

General

- How will marking be conducted this year?
 - In 2026, the marking of NT NAPLAN Writing assessments will be conducted remotely.
 - Markers must have their own device that fulfills the requirements detailed in How can I check if my PC/MAC is suitable for marking? below.
- When will marking begin?
 - Training sessions will be conducted in the week of 9 March 2026. Marking will take place from Monday 16 March for approximately four to six weeks. There will be no marking over the Easter break.
- When will marking conclude?
 - Marking generally runs for approximately four to six weeks. We are unable to provide a fixed end date as we complete marking once all scripts in the system have been marked. You will be notified of a completion date closer to the end of the marking operation.
- Will there be marking over the Easter break?
 - There will be no marking during the Easter public holidays.

Recruitment

- How do I apply for NT NAPLAN Marking?
 - Click here to apply for NT NAPLAN Marking.
- Do I need to re-apply if I've marked NT NAPLAN in the past for Pearson?
 - Yes. You are required to apply to confirm that you are available and willing to commit to the dates for marking. Reapplying should take only a few minutes as you will have an existing profile in our recruitment system. Click here to apply for NT NAPLAN Marking.
- I am new to NT NAPLAN Writing. What qualifications do I need to be eligible to mark?
 - You need to have a teaching degree specialising in English. It is also favourable to have experience teaching English in an Australian Primary or Secondary School for at least one year. Current and retired English teachers are encouraged to apply.
- I am new to NT NAPLAN Writing. Are there any prerequisites for me to be eligible to mark?
 - Please refer to the relevant job description for the eligibility criteria.
- What is the recruitment process like for NT NAPLAN marking?
 - The recruitment process for NT NAPLAN marking is as follows:
 - 1. Submission of your application - Your application will be reviewed by our recruitment team to assess your eligibility based on the requirements of the role.
 - 2. Phone screening - If you are successful in the initial review of your submitted application, we will advance you on to phone screening where we will conduct a one-on-one phone interview with you. We will make a second assessment of your application based on the information provided during the phone screening stage.

- 3. Notification of application outcome – Once we have reviewed your entire application, we will advise you of the outcome of your application (successful/unsuccessful) via phone or email.
- 4. Employment contract – If successful, you will receive the employment contract as well as new hire documentation for you to complete. You will need to accept and complete all paperwork and return them as soon as possible to enable us to set you up in our payroll system. You will also need to complete and send in your Right to Work in Australia form and appropriate identification (i.e. passport) to prapayroll@pearson.com.
- When will I find out if my application has been successful?
 - Applicants will be notified by 28 February 2026 of the outcome of their application.
- I've forgotten my password to the recruitment webpage – what should I do?
 - You can access the recruitment website at: www.pearsonra.com.au/people. Click on "Forgot your Username or Password?" (please bear in mind that the email address for login may not be the same as your contact email address). Fill in the details requested.
 - Allow up to 15 minutes for the system to send a temporary password to your contact email. Once you have logged in using your temporary password you will be prompted to set a new password.
- I no longer want to be contacted in the future for NT NAPLAN marking. How do I inform Pearson about this?
 - Please email: naplanmarking@pearson.com with your full name and state that you do not wish to be contacted in the future.
- I would like to withdraw from this marking project. How do I inform Pearson of my withdrawal?
 - Please email: naplanmarking@pearson.com with your full name. It would be very helpful for us if you could also include a brief explanation of the reason for your withdrawal.
