Pearson

Position Title: Home-Based Marker – NSW NAPLAN 2027

Department: Pearson Education Services

Reports To: Marking Centre Manager

Location: Marking is home-based and is open to applicants from metropolitan and regional areas of NSW and ACT. Training will be held in multiple formats, both onsite and remotely online.

Purpose of this Position

You will be part of one of the largest learning companies internationally and work alongside like-minded professionals in assessing a range of NAPLAN Writing responses from Year 3, 5, 7 and 9 students. Participating in the marking of NAPLAN Writing also provides a meaningful and rewarding experience, as you will be helping to enhance literacy levels in NSW and ACT.

Key Responsibilities

Attend and successfully complete marker training and induction.
Demonstrate competence in the online marking procedures and instructions.
Mark candidate responses, at an item level, using the Pearson Online Marking System.
Mark candidate responses of items accurately and in a timely manner in accordance with the marking criteria set by ACARA, the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) and Pearson.
Complete all marking in accordance with training and rostered dates.
Maintain the security and confidentiality of all assessment information and materials.
Carry out other tasks assigned by the Group Leader, Professional Leader or any member of the Pearson staff.

Requirements

Be available for the entire period of live marking, including training.

- Training period: mid-March 2027.
- Marking period: approximately four to six weeks.
- Marking will begin immediately after the training period and continue until approximately mid to late April.

Be online during a mandatory marking period and commit to undertake a minimum of four hours of marking daily, for six days a week during the live marking period.

Have access to a computer and reliable internet connection that meets the Pearson technical requirements for marking.

Be able to work from home in an environment that maintains the security and confidentiality of all assessment information, materials and candidate responses.

Be prepared to accurately mark candidates' work samples using the marking framework presented in training for writing.

Be prepared to receive ongoing support and instruction regarding the marking of NAPLAN writing as part of quality assurance protocols.

Be able to work as part of a supportive team and have the ability to work in accordance with marking rate targets.

Key Relationships / Stakeholders

Group Leaders	Monitors the productivity, quality and attendance of their team daily.
Professional Leaders	Monitors the progress and quality of marking and identify if any retraining is required.
NESA Representatives	Pearson works closely with the NSW Education Standards Authority in the delivery of assessments around NAPLAN to students throughout NSW and ACT.
Marking Centre Managers	Oversees all matters around marking progress, marking quality and any issues that may arise during the course of the operation.

Qualifications and/or Experience

Mandatory

Have been teaching English in an Australian Primary or Secondary School for at least one year and hold at least a NESA Conditional or Provisional Accreditation.

Mandatory

Have previously been a NAPLAN Marker or completed the NESA Learning Assessing writing using the NAPLAN writing marking guide – narrative or persuasive course. (Both free courses are available on the NESA Learning page).

Mandatory

Have at least a Bachelor's degree in teaching (we are also accepting applications from students studying a teaching degree in their final year from a reputable Australian institution).

Mandatory

Be able to use a computer to conduct marking and complete appropriate training.

Preferable

Have an understanding of criterion-based marking (writing), grammar and structures.